

WEEKLY SCHEDULE FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

SUNDAYS:

10:00 AM HOLY EUCHARIST

10:00 AM SUNDAY SCHOOL

WEDNESDAYS:

7:30 PM BIBLE STUDY

SUNDAY OCTOBER 1: BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

On this Sunday we celebrate The Feast of St. Francis, the patron saint of animals and the environment. Please bring your pets (or pictures of them if they don't travel well) to St. Barnabas where the blessing of the animals will be held outside in the upper parking lot following the 10 AM Eucharist. At Ardsley Day on September 24 we handed out flyers about the event to visitors to our booth, so we may be joined in this event by others in the community. You are welcome to bring your pet to church.

OUTREACH SUNDAY, OCTOBER 1 NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE ASSOCIATION

The Native American Heritage Association (NAHA) is a charitable non-profit organization dedicated to helping Native American families in need living on Reservations in South Dakota and Wyoming. For 23 years NAHA has provided food, clothing, heating assistance and other emergency programs to the Native American families living on the Crow Creek, Lower Brule, Pine Ridge, Cheyenne River and Rosebud Reservations. Cash donations in the offering plate on Sunday October 1 will go to NAHA as well as checks made out to St. Barnabas with the designation: for NAHA Outreach.

OCTOBER 7: LEARN MORE ABOUT THE LITURGY AT THE CATHEDRAL OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE

The Episcopal Diocese of New York is holding a Diocesan Liturgy Festival at the Cathedral on Saturday October 7 from 9 AM to 3 PM. All those interested in learning more about the Liturgy of our church are welcome to attend. Following a Keynote speech by the Rt. Rev. J. Neil Alexander, Dean of the School of Theology Sewanee, there will be workshops on Lectors, BCP 101, Presiding, Lay Eucharistic Ministry, Morning Prayer as the Sunday Service in the absence of a priest, Ushers as ministers of welcome and Music. Completion of the Lay Eucharistic Ministry workshop constitutes the training required for licensing.

If you are interested in attending any of the workshops, the registration deadline is October 3. The $15 fee for the workshops includes lunch. You can register online for the event by going to <https://www.diocesenyn.org/ednyevent/diocesan-liturgy-festival-2/>

ATTIC SALE, OCTOBER 27-28, 10AM-4PM

Our Attic Sales are a major source of revenue for St. Barnabas. In addition to pledges and rentals they pay for our operating expenses. They are also a lot of work which is why we ask everyone at St. Barnabas to pitch in and help us set up tables, unpack boxes of stored items, arrange displays, put on price stickers, help in the kitchen or manage a designated table on the two days of the sale and then pack up everything that was not sold. If you cannot stand, we always have jobs for those who need to sit down. On Sunday October 22 at 5 PM we will be setting up tables and pulling boxes out from storage. Beginning around 10AM on Monday through Thursday we do the set up and pricing. The work goes on throughout each day and into the evenings. If you can't spend some time during the day, please consider giving an hour or two of help in the evening.

Nancy Gotthelf is the patron saint of our attic sales, so if you have any questions please speak with her. And PLEASE SIGN UP for whatever times you can give to help in this event.

MIDNIGHT RUN OCTOBER 20

Our monthly run takes place on Friday October 20. Sorting of clothes will be at 10 AM the preceding Wednesday October 18. Set up of lunch bags for the run will be starting at 5 PM on the 20th. Also, we need sneakers, shoes, T-shirts, knit jerseys, sweatshirts and jeans (waist 28-44). Please sign up to go on the run as a driver or helper or to help supply the sandwiches, hard boiled eggs, fruit and desserts needed for the lunch bags.

ARDSLEY DAY

It was hot, hot, HOT on September 24, Ardsley Day (91degrees, felt like 106!), but our volunteers sweltered through. We handed out St. B shopping bags, biscuits for doggie visitors, flyers about our Blessing of the Animals on Oct. 1, stampers for the kids and Welcome brochures for those who expressed interest in knowing more about our wonderful parish. We also wore our new GOT FAITH? t-shirts. Betty Godley who was up visiting from South Carolina bravely helped out for the entire noon to five fair as did Debbie Tashoff with her son, Benjamin. Special thanks go to Bill Sullivan and Nancy Gotthelf for setting up and taking down our booth. Thanks also to Kathy Wolf, Carolyn Ricci, Chrystal Young, Doreen Kolditz, Vicki Currie, Joedy Kimball, Hope Sutherland, Laura Andrade and Pat Breinin who took turns at the booth.

NEEDED: DELEGATE TO DIOCESAN CONVENTION

We need a volunteer to represent St. Barnabas at the Diocesan convention at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine on November 11. The convention, which is made up of both clergy and lay members, is where decisions are made about the organization of our church. Representatives get to vote on proposals, hear the Bishop speak and meet clergy and congregants from all over the Diocese. Any event held at the Cathedral is always impressive, let alone the chance to be part of the decision making process. Please speak with Kathy Wolf if you would like to represent St. Barnabas at the convention.

SLEEP OUT FOR HOMELESS TEENAGERS OCTOBER 14-15 8PM-8AM

At the Annual Dobbs Ferry Festa Children's Village is sponsoring a sleep out to raise awareness of the fact that there are 1,400 homeless teenagers in Westchester County. Participants should bring sleeping bags, tents, food to share, etc. to the Zion Episcopal Church yard on Cedar Street. There will be access to church bathrooms and water will be supplied. Children under 18 must be accompanied by a guardian. For more information about the event look for the flyers on the back table in our sanctuary. Nancy Gotthelf is our coordinator for this event. If you have any questions, please contact her :
towgk@aol.com or cell 914-564-9162.

THANKS TO MOTHER NATURE FOR ANOTHER BEAUTIFUL DAY SEPTEMBER 10

We were blessed once again to have a perfect September day for our church picnic. No one went home hungry!
